

European Macroeconomics

Andrea Borsato ¹

¹ Université de Strasbourg, Université de Lorraine, CNRS, BETA, 67000, Strasbourg, France

European Macroeconomics

October 13-18, 2022

Syllabus of the course I

- Lectures 1-2: An evolutionary interpretation of technical change
 - Topics: the nature of technology; how technology evolves
 - References: Dosi and Nelson \(2010\)
- Lecture 3: National Systems of Innovation
 - Topics: definition and stylised facts of a NSI; focus on European economies
 - References: Lundvall \(2007\), Maurseth and Verspagen \(1999\)
 - Suggested reference (if you are interested in the topic): Freeman \(1982\)
- Lecture 4: Institutions, Policies and the European Paradox
 - Topics: market failures, institutions' role, development of capabilities
European paradox
 - References: Cimoli et al. \(2009, ch. 2\), Dosi et al. \(2006\)

Syllabus of the course II

- Lecture 5: general recap, questions, based on your needs
- Link to download slides and material:
<https://github.com/BorsatoAndrea/EuropeanMacroeconomics>
- Questions? Write at: aborsato@unistra.fr